

01/02/2026 – DAY 01

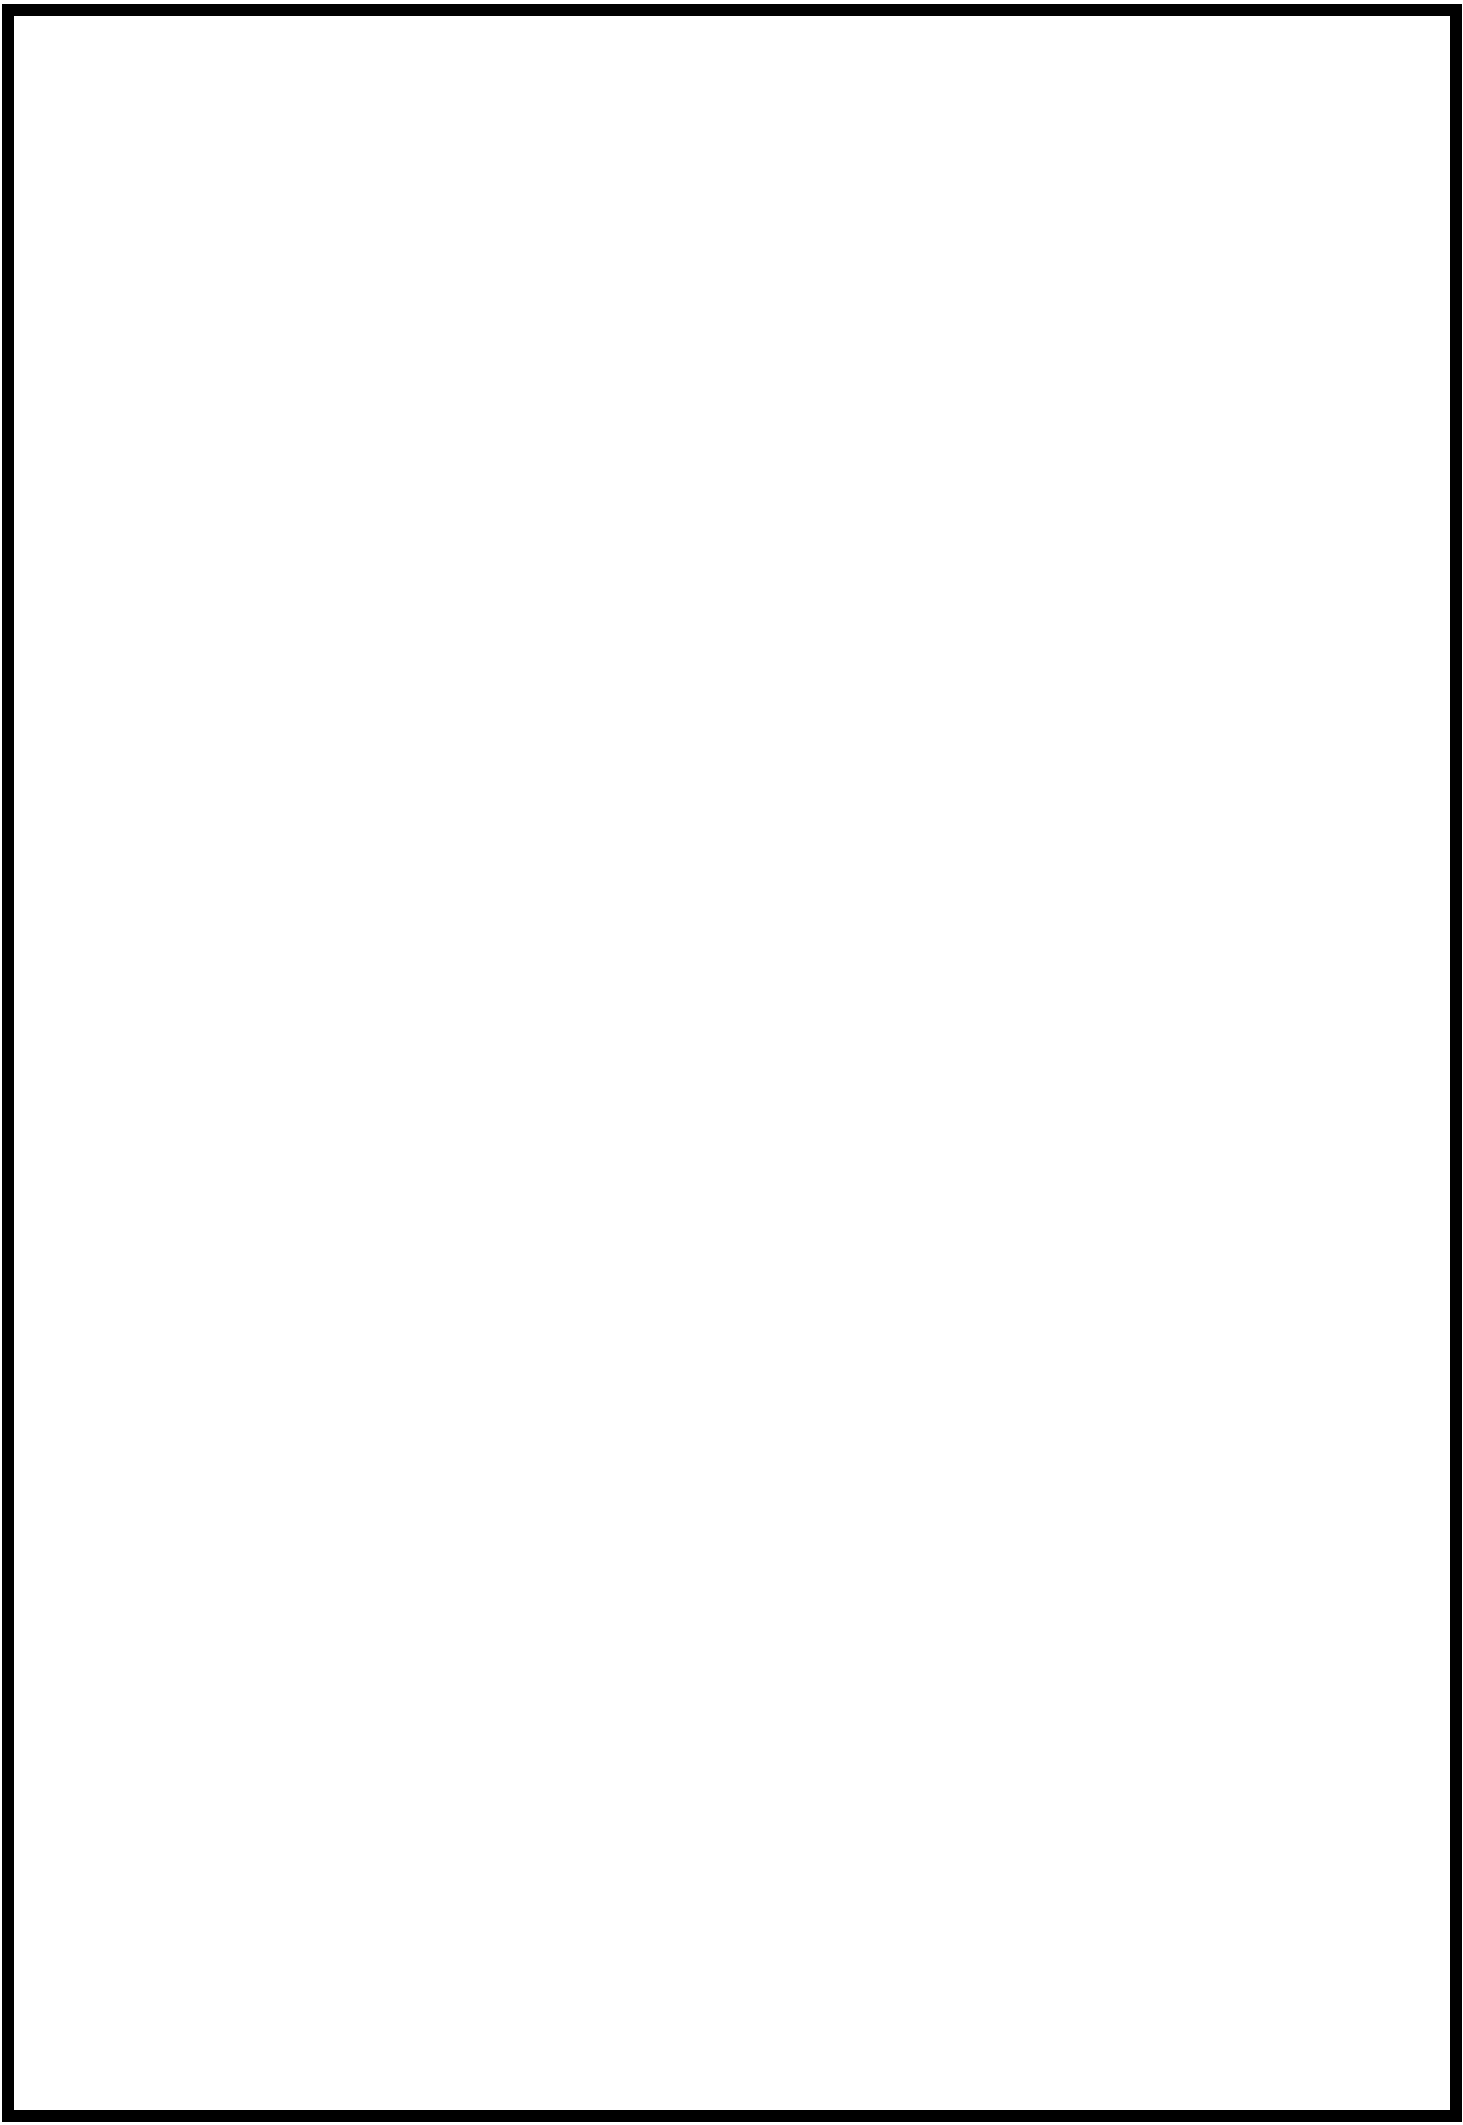

The NSS Unit of The National College,Basavangudi, Organized a seven-day special camp at Achalu,The first day of the NSS Village Camp in Achalu, Kanakapura Taluk, Ramnagara District,Karnataka . We started our journey from college campus around 8:15 AM at the NES block, where volunteers finalized plans and performed a traditional pooja for the bus before departing at 10:00 AM. Upon arriving at 12:45 PM, the teams efficiently managed site setup, with Team Cholas and Team Chalukyas handling the kitchen while Team Hoysalas and Team Rashtrakutas managed cleaning duties. Following a 3:30 PM lunch, a formal inauguration ceremony was held featuring esteemed guests, including Chief Guest Sri V. Manjunath ,Alakananda K P , vice principle,national college,basavangudi , Kumar Swamy, Gram Panchayath member,Chandrakanth doddmani,Headmaster,Primary High School,achalu, Sandhya ,HOD,kannaada department, Swetha ,English department , Chidambar Reddy ,HOD, Bsc Animation ,Dr.Selvappa ,HOD,sanskrit department.The evening transitioned into cultural activities hosted by Team Guptas, A cultural program was then held at 6:00 PM, Various teams actively participated and showcased their talents, with enthusiastic involvement from the villagers. with Team Cholas and Team Chalukyas handling the kitchen .The day concluded with a fall-in session and the compilation of the day's report.

02/02/2026 DAY-02

On the second day of the NSS Village Camp, volunteers commenced their activities early, waking up at 4:30 AM and preparing for the day by 5:00 AM. The morning routine included the standard fall-in and daily chores, followed by a flag-hoisting ceremony and a physical wellness session featuring warm-up exercises and yoga led by Team Gupta. After a brief tea break, the volunteers engaged in Shramadhana (community service) until 10:00 AM, followed by breakfast and rehearsals for the upcoming cultural programs. At 4:00 PM, Team Rashtrakutas hosted the Upanyasa (lecture session) and an inauguration event where the Chief Guest, Nagaraj PT Master, along with Andani Gowda and the Panchayat Development Officer (PDO), Chandrakanth doddmani, Head Master, provided motivational speeches and instructions. The evening cultural program began at 6:30 PM, organized by Team Cholas, and was heartfully enjoyed and the local village children and residents. The day concluded with a final fall-in session, after which the volunteers completed their daily reporting and retired for the night at 10:00 PM.

03/02/2026 DAY – 03

On the third day, the camp emphasized environmental maintenance and academic interaction, beginning with Team Cholas conducting the morning flag-hoisting and exercise sessions. Between 7:50 AM and 10:00 AM, the volunteers performed a comprehensive cleaning of the local temple premises and its surrounding areas, demonstrating the NSS commitment to preserving public spaces. The afternoon's Upanyasa program, organized by Team Guptas, was notable for the presence of several faculty members, including Mrs Navya, Mrs Sangeetha B.K, Miss Ananya Mrs Vinutha, Mr Bharath ,Mrs Pavithra, Mrs Uma .and others, who oversaw the intellectual development of the volunteers. The evening cultural events were managed by Team Hoysalas and concluded by 9:30 PM. The day's operations ended with a 9:45 PM dinner and a final session to complete administrative tasks and "pre-work" for the following day's activities, with the camp quieting down by 11:00 PM.

04/02/2026 DAY – 04

The fourth day of the camp began at 5:15 AM with daily chores, followed by a 6:00 AM assembly where Team Hoysalas conducted the flag-hoisting ceremony and welcomed the guests. After a session of meditation and exercise, the volunteers embarked on a trekking expedition to Achalu Betta, where they performed Shramadhana (community labor) on the mountain before returning at 10:45 AM. While Team Guptas managed site cleaning and Team Cholas prepared for rehearsals, the afternoon featured an educational Upanyasa by Dr. Mahesh, a science teacher from G.H.S. Achalu, who spoke on environmental wellness and cleanliness. The evening cultural program, hosted by Team Chalukyas, drew a large crowd from the village thanks to the promotion efforts of Team Guptas. The day concluded at 9:00 PM with a meeting led by Smt. Supriya and Smt. Yashyashwini, who emphasized discipline, coordination, and respect as core values for the remaining camp days.

05/02/2026 DAY – 05

The fifth day centered on the theme of Women Empowerment, beginning at 4:45 AM with a flag-hoisting ceremony and a yoga session led by Smt. Supriya. Following a kitchen rotation managed by Team Guptas, volunteers engaged in Shramadhana (community service) from 8:00 AM to 10:00 AM, followed by team-based projects. The afternoon featured an Upanyasa (lecture) on Communication Skills and Personality Development, attended by a panel of guests including Dr. Anitha Hegade, Sri Srinivas Gupta, Sri V. Venkatesh Reddy Secretary NES,NCB, Sri Sudhakar Esthuri Chairman NES,NCB, and Mrs. Renuka MC ,Headmistress. In the evening, Team Cholas managed the living quarters while conducting Prachara to invite villagers to a cultural program hosted by Team Rashtrakutas. The day's activities concluded with a final session and dinner, with volunteers retiring at 11:45 PM.

06/02/2026 DAY – 06

The day began at 4:45 AM with a flag-hoisting ceremony led by Team Rashtrakutas and yoga practice conducted by Smt. Yashaswini. After a kitchen shift managed by Team Cholas, a medical health camp was held at 10:00 AM, providing blood pressure and blood sugar screenings for the community. Following a special lunch trip to a nearby village for biryani, the volunteers attended an Upanyasa on fire and health services presented by Mr Premanand Shetty . The evening featured a site cleaning by Team Hoysalas and a vibrant Kannada Habba celebration, where all volunteers dressed in traditional attire. The day concluded with a candle-light ceremony at the Ranga Mandira and a camp fire that lasted until 2:00 AM.

07/02/2026 day – 07

The final day of the camp at Achalu began at 5:00 AM, with volunteers waking up to conclude their stay. No flag-hoisting ceremony was held as it was the day of departure. The teams collaborated for a final round of service: Team Cholas and Team Chalukyas handled cleaning and awareness (prachara), while Teams Hoysalas, Rashtrakutas, and Guptas managed the kitchen. After cleaning the school premises and eating breakfast, the unit prepared to return to the college campus. The closing ceremony included featuring guests such as Smt. Renukamba M.C Head Mistress, Sri Chandrakanth Dodmani, HeadMaster, Sri Sathish, and Sri Andani Gowda PDO. Faculty members present included Principal Dr. Ramesh P.L., Vice Principal Prof. Alakananda, Lieutenant Prakash and NSS Coordinator Prof. Sudhir. Following the speeches, which concluded at 3:00 PM, the group had a final lunch and snacks before assembling for a member count at 4:30 PM. The bus departed the village, traveling through Kanakapura at 6:15 PM and arriving at National College at 7:00 PM. After confirming their arrival with the NSS captains, the volunteers successfully concluded their seven-day immersive village experience.

